By Bertha Hempstead

Mrs. D. P. Paxton entertained her bridge club this afternoon. The substitutes were: Mrs. Ida Denton, of Wichita; Mrs. H. G. Larimer, Mrs. G. C. Bowman, Mrs. A. A. Hurd, Mrs. Herbert G. West and Mrs. A. W. Bronson.

Evening gown of shell pink tulle which is gathered very tightly about the waist with an overskirt of darker colored pink tulle draped over it, and caught up on the side with a bunch of roses. A bodice of dark colored panne velvet with sleeves of tulle. The bodice is cut in V shape in the front and back and is fastened under the left arm with a rhinestone buckle. A corsage bouquet of roses completes the dress.

A party of Topeka people will motor to Elmdale next Saturday to attend a house party at Blackshire ranch. Those who will make up the party from Topeka are: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sessions and their son, Charles, Jr., Mr. Perry Sessions, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weatherston, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Hogeboom and their son, Sheldon Hogeboom.

Governor and Mrs. Arthur Capper will entertain the Western Sorosis club at an evening meeting Saturday of this week. Each member may invite one guest to the meeting. Mrs. W. E. Aitchison will read a paper on "The Borderland," and the discussion will be conducted by Mrs. A. A. Godard, Dr. Sara Greenfield and Miss Effie Graham.

Mr. Joseph Mulvane celebrated his birthday anniversary at a dinner given in his honor by his daughter, Mrs. Speed Hughes. Pink roses were used to decorate the dining table, and those who were guests were a few of Mr. Mulvane's close friends.

Mr. Roswell Coffey will give a masquerade dancing party at his home in Topeka avenue during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kleinhaus, of Grantville, are entertaining Mrs. Kleinhaus's sister, Mrs. W. Cole Brigham, and Mr. Brigham of Shelter Island Heights, New York.

Mr. Brigham is an artist and the originator of the marine mosaic art. He is a member of the Architectural league, the New York Art Students' league, and the Society of Arts and Crafts in Boston. He has made some handsome memorial windows for Merill chapel, St. Mary's church of Shelter Island, and has made windows for the homes of the Goulds and Vanderbilts in New York and for the J. H. Aldrich home, of Sag Harbor.

The annual concert of the four music clubs of Topeka, will be given Wednesday afternoon at the First Baptist church. The clubs which unite in offering the recital are the Ladies' Music club, the Music Study club, the Matinee Music club and the Minerva club. Mrs. C. J. Wilson, Mrs. Arza Clark, Mrs. Beatrice Clifton and Miss Hazel Wang, will play piano accompaniments.

The program for the afternoon will be as follows:

The Society of Mayflower Descendants held its first annual meeting Saturday in Memorial Hall, followed by a dinner at Mulls' Tea room at 7 o'clock Saturday evening.

The business of the society was transacted at the afternoon meeting, when officers were chosen, as follows: Mrs. Arthur L. Bennett, governor; Mrs. John R. Shelton, deputy governor; Mrs. E. McGreggor, secretary; Mrs. W. T. Johnson, treasurer; Mr. E. M. Hopkins of Lawrence, historian; Mrs. David Hill of Salina and Mrs. Alfred Ambler, assistants.

It was voted by the members to place in Memorial Hall, a bronze tablet bearing the names of the charter members of the society. Mrs. David Hill presented to the evening meeting the matter of becoming a member of the Kansas State Historical society. The Mayflower society voted to join the historical society.

The banquet table was attractive in its decorations, which consisted of a large centerpiece in the form of a lake on which floated a little sail boat, given to the society by Mrs. A. McGreggor, who had charge of the dinner and the decorations. Surrounding the centerpiece was a trimming of white lace and pink and white flowers, and roses and chrysanthemums around the pool. The place cards were decorated with May baskets and flowers.

Professor Hopkins of the Kansas State university was toastmaster, and the speeches were brief and informal. Mr. Bennett, the chief officer, was asked to give a short history of the organization. He said that it had taken a year and a half to organize the Kansas branch of the society, and that the first step toward the organization was thought of when he met Mrs. McGreggor at the historical society looking up her family history, at the time he was engaged in the same study. They discussed the matter of proposing such an organization, and through the newspapers brought the subject before the people of the state. The organization was perfected a year ago, and the members expect to increase the present membership about fifty per cent. Nine new members have been added to the role, and applications from other Kansans are under consideration.

Mrs. David Hill of Salina was asked to speak in behalf of the new members. She explained how a person looking up his ancestors will find many surprises, and that many people, instead of finding one ancestor who came to America in the Mayflower, will find several, as the colonists were clannish and intermarried with the immigrants of their own class and town. This one woman looking up her family record, was astonished to learn that she had in her veins the blood of thirty of the Mayflower immigrants.

Mr. A. E. Van Patten was asked to make a short address. He emphasized the pride that one was justified in feeling for the honor of being descended from American pioneer stock.

Mrs. Annie Brewster Morgan of Kansas City responded to a toast. She traces her descent to Elder William Brewster of Plymouth colony. "Our interest in our ancestors should produce in us," she said, "a desire to leave to our descendants a record that they will be proud to trace."

Miss Anna Paddock of Iola spoke at the banquet in the place of her mother, Mrs. Paddock, a new member of the Mayflower society of Kansas, who is said to be the oldest person who has ever taken out an application to join the society. She is 89 years of age, and it was thought inadvisable for her to make the trip to Topeka to attend the meeting. Miss Paddock said that the family was descended from John Holland of Plymouth, and that she had four ancestors in the Mayflower. One of her ancestors, one Mayhew, was the first governor of Nantucket islands, and a missionary to the Indians.

Mrs. McGreggor, who was a delegate from the Kansas Society to the national society held in Plymouth this year, made a report on the meeting.

Dr. C. A. McGuire was asked to speak on the feelings of the husband of a Mayflower. Dr. McGuire, being Irish, claims no ancestors in the Mayflower. He thought that the boat which brought the Pilgrims across must have been made of India rubber, considering the vast numbers it must have transported, and he passed around a cartoon clipped from "Judge," showing the Pilgrim Fathers despoiling the faces of some Indians and driving them off from the land. He closed his remarks with a toast in rhyme, to the early immigrants and their descendants.

The new members of the society are: Mrs. Gertrude Ambler of Topeka; Mr. Merrill Masters, chairman; Miss Elizabeth Sherman and Mr. Carl Sherman, Mr. Maurice L. Alden of Kansas City; Mrs. Anna McGreggor of Kansas City; Mrs. Gladys Everts Hill, Salina; Mrs. Pauline Paddock of Iola; Mrs. Mabel Fenstermacher of Muskogee.

The charter members include: Mrs. Harriet Handy Shelton of Topeka; Mrs. Clara B. Eddy McGuire of Topeka; Mrs. Anna McGreggor of Topeka; Mrs. Lenora Gove McGreggor of Wichita; Mrs. Sadie Damon George of Wichita; Mrs. Mary N. Stratford of Wichita; Mrs. Caroline Macomber Bennett of Holton; Miss Victoria Bennett of Holton; Mrs. Minnie L. Wilcox of Abilene; Mrs. Elizabeth Hoyt Purcell of Manhattan; Mrs. Kate de Graff of Manhattan; Mrs. Clara Huntington Dods of Kansas City; Mrs. Margaret B. Brownell of Lawrence; Mrs. Susan J. W. Burch of Hutchinson; Mr. Arthur H. Bennett of Topeka; Mr. Alfred Emery Van Patten of Topeka; Mr. Edwin Mortimer Hopkins of Lawrence; Mr. Albert T. Hyde of Wichita; Mr. Luther C. Newcomb of Wichita; Mr. Edwards A. Hiller of Salina; Mr. Ralph A. Hiller of Norton; Mr. George Handy Shelton of Topeka.

A five-year-old girl gave a demonstration of simplified spelling today for the benefit of the patrons of a Douthitt avenue street car. The little girl, who had just learned her A. B. C.'s in the kindergarten, was carrying a box labeled "Animal Biscuits." She was with her mother and suddenly a thought struck her.

"Can spell cracker, mamma," she said.

The mother said that she bet her daughter couldn't spell cracker and the little girl proceeded to spell the bet. She looked at the label on the box and spelled: "c-r-a-c-k-e-r. There mother."

Mrs. Morgan Perkins has announced the engagement of her daughter, Mary Margaret, to Mr. D. G. Morton, of Gallatin, Tenn. The wedding will take place December 22 at the home of Miss Perkins' aunt, Mrs. John Bostick Ransom, of Nashville, Tenn.

The Portia club and the Minerva club are especially invited to be present at the art exhibit Tuesday afternoon, November 23. Mrs. Katherine

Though she is familiar to millions, Blanche Sweet, the screen star, has never appeared before an audience. She has never spoken from a theater stage. She could do it if she wished, no doubt, but as Miss Sweet says: "Owls are considered wise because no one ever heard them speak. Guess I'll follow their example."

IN NORTH TOPEKA

Controversy Over the Frye Bridge Has Been Settled.

Bad Hills on the Meriden Road Are Cut Down.

The collapse of the Frye bridge, which fell into Soldier creek recently when a tree dropped on it, has not caused the dove of peace to shun either the county commissioners or the board of drainage. An agreement has been reached by the county and drainage board officers that is satisfactory to both parties, it is said, and with the situation cleared up plans are being made for a new structure over Soldier.

The loss that resulted when the old bridge fell into the creek will be split between the county and drainage board commissioners, it is announced, and the contribution from the North Topeka district will be applied to the cost of the new structure, which will probably be of concrete. In the event that a concrete bridge is decided upon no steps will be taken to rebuild before next spring.

Road Is Now Level.

That toboggan effect has been taken out of the Meriden road and that highway now compares favorably with any in the county. Under direction of the county commissioners, two hills in the road have been leveled and the earth removed from the tops has been used to fill in the low places. The former bad spots were three and a half and four miles north of the city.

Were Married Early.

An early morning marriage was performed today by the Rev. Father Henry of the German Catholic church, who married Miss Pauline Burghardt and John Semprez at 6 o'clock. Following a luncheon for friends this morning the bride and groom left for California, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mrs. Semprez is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Burghardt of 1100 North Monroe street. Semprez is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Semprez of 409 West Railroad street. Semprez is a machinist in the Otto Kuehne plant and the dinner at the bride's home was for the employees of the company.

Notes and Personals.

Mrs. E. M. Reagle of Denver, Col., is in North Topeka, where she is looking after property here and visiting friends. Mrs. Reagle formerly resided on the North side and expects to remain here through the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherwood and Mr. and Mrs. William Sherwood, Jr., will motor to Kansas City next Thursday and will spend the day with friends there.

H. A. Ostrand of Elmont, Sam Roller of Silver Lake and Charles Huntington of Silver Lake were in North Topeka Saturday on business.

Members of the Dramatic club of Knights and Ladies of Security, lodge No. 3, will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. George W. Collins of 417 Park avenue, where a rehearsal will be held for a play which will be put on by the club Monday night.

W. H. Orr and Ed Wisant of Silver Lake were in North Topeka Saturday on business.

Mrs. C. O. Shultice of Silver Lake spent Saturday on the North side, where she visited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Graber of North Topeka spent Sunday with relatives in Manhattan.

THREE DRIVERS HERE

Treanery, Donaldson and Laeur Arrive for Big Auto Races.

Frank Treanery, of Indianapolis; Orville Donaldson, of Milford, Iowa, and Ed Laeur, of Cherokee, Iowa, three of the professional auto racing drivers who will fight it out with "Wild Bill" Mackerell and others here Thanksgiving day for $1,000 purses, have arrived in the city with their cars and "Wild Bill" and the others will come in tomorrow.

The machines are stationed in the respective garages representing Mackerell's big Chalmers Six is the largest machine of the five. It was towed from the depot to the garage, as "Wild Bill" will not trust anybody to drive it. The machines, a day or two late, came in from Fort Dodge, where a racing meet was held.

Orville Donaldson's famous demon car, the "Emden," was driven around the fair grounds track this morning on an examination trip. The track was found to be in excellent condition with the exception of a bump in the home stretch, which workmen are planning down.

Ray Hebert will be here with Nelson O'Connell's "O. C. racer." O'Connell was formerly a professional driver, but quit the game. He is now a business man of Sioux City, but the old fever is still with him and his car was built especially for him, although he never drives it in a race.

The races will begin at 2:30 o'clock, sharp. There will be one admission, 50 cents, to get inside the fair grounds gate, then everything will be free—music, races, grandstand and bleachers.

Automobiles will be parked free of charge anywhere on the grounds, including the quarter stretch.

IN FREIGHT CAR A WEEK

Herrington Man Rescued After Living on Apples Seven Days.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 22.—A week in a freight car with nothing to eat except apples almost had driven James McMahon, a Herrington, Kan., laborer into an insane frenzy when he was released Saturday night. He had almost cut his way through the walls of the car with a dull razor.

"I don't remember anything from the time I started drinking on Herrington a week ago until I recovered consciousness in the car day before yesterday," McMahon said. "I was weak and soon found I could not live long by eating apples and nothing else."

"I shouted for help until my voice gave out. Then I started trying to cut my way out. I would cut as long as my strength lasted, then sleep and then cut again."

McMahon was held at police headquarters.
